

2017-2018 Sustainable Stanford Internship Position Description

Campus Department – Department Division/Office: R&DE

Position Supervisor: Kristin Parineh

Position Title: Zero Waste Intern

Position Description: Interns will assist with educational programming, auditing, and improvements to waste collection infrastructure within residence halls. Interns will help with gathering data on the effectiveness of our efforts toward moving to zero waste. Both graduate and undergraduate students are encouraged to apply.

Position Length:

Entire 2017-2018 academic year

Opportunities and Benefits:

- Learn about campus sustainability and gain project management experience in designing and implementing projects.
- Work collaboratively with others on educating and advocating for positive campus change.
- Develop professional management, communication, and leadership skills.
- Develop relationships with sustainability leaders on and off campus.
- Learn about careers in sustainability.
- Make a real impact!

Qualifications:

- Eager to learn about and advocate for conservation and sustainability; creative and enthusiastic.
- Effective written and oral communication skills.
- Can work well independently as well as collaboratively.
- Organized, self-motivated and accountable for work.
- Able to commit the required weekly 3-8 hours of work.

Salary:

Hourly salary at a rate of $15-17/hr

To Apply:

Please provide a resume and cover letter stating your interest and experience by email to skcoxon@stanford.edu, with the subject line R&DE Zero Waste Intern. Deadline is 12pm on Friday,

April 28. Interviews will be held during the week of May 1 and hiring decisions will be announced by May 12, 2017.